“ I have so many memories. I took my grandson, Cade to his house often when Cade was very young. We arrived one day and Alvie had a surprise for Cade. He had purchased a pair of black rubber boots. He told Cade that he needed boots like his so they could go to the woods together. When we visited after that, the first thing that Cade would do was put on his boots so they could go outside.

“ My fondest memory of Uncle Alvie was playing a mean game of Trouble with him, he always said I cheated, but I think he was! Will miss his grin.
