“ Brilla and I became friends when I first moved to Black Roc in 1969 I think. She was married to Earl and I was married to Mo Meeks. Donald and Scot went to school together and were friends. When her and Earl divorced she moved into one of the Glen Hankins houses close to me and Mo. One day Scot got bit by a dog really close to his eye. She helped get it clearned up and both of us calmed down so we could take him to the Dr for a shot. She was amazingly calm. She and I lost touch after I moved away but we always kept up with each other through one way or other. She loved my mom always mom loved her. Thank you Stacy for allowing me to share in this final journey with you always did your family. Love and prayers for you all. Syrena Shari Meeks Price.
