“ Cameron you came into our lives through my daughter, and I can honestly say you were the best thing that happened to her. You loved her through thick and thin as she loved you. You were a great daddy to my grandson and for that I will be forever grateful. You treated me and mine with nothing but respect. You were my crafting buddy, my ear when I needed to talk, you were more than my daughters fiance you were my friend. I loved you for being you and I love you still. Rest well my friend, you deserve all good that Heaven has to offer.

“ I remember Cam from being in my brothers class at Hoxie and then as I became an adult. Cam was always a very sweet and caring person with a smile that was contagious. The last time I seem Cam was on a field trip our boys were attending and we stood outside the bowling alley and talked for a bit. I am so blessed to have been able to know Cam. He will truly be missed by many. RIP friend and until we meet again.....

“ I babysat cameron when he was a little boy. He was so very sweet and such a joy to be around. When he came to work for my husband, he stopped by often and had his little boy with him. I saw that He was such a loving father and a wonderful young man. I truly enjoyed talking to him and we will dearly miss him. RIP Cameron. We will keep his family in our prayers. May God be with them an comfort them in this mournful time.

“ When Cameron was a little boy he was our neighbor. He was a good boy, kinda quite didn't have much to say. I always remember the day he moved he came over and brought me some little things for a keepsake and I bake him a plate of cookies. He just smiled. After he grew up he always remember us when we would see him. So sad he was so young. Our family will remember the family and the little children in our prayers.
