“ My birth name was Jennifer Charlene Creed. Charlene was my biological maternal grandmother. While I regretfully never got the chance the chance to meet her, I did get to talk to her quite a bit. I feel blessed knowing that even though I was taken away and put up for adoption, she never forgot about me. That showed me the person she was. It's funny that never knowing her, our lives were a lot alike. We both carried some physical traits, and work choices as I also worked for a school for many years. I will miss her and forever wish we could have met. But, I also know that she will be the same angel looking over me when I was a baby, and even more so now. RIP, grandma, we will meet one day. Love you, Jennifer

I was Charlene Creed before I married. I am John David's daughter. I was blessed to have Grandma, or NiNi, as we called her, raise me. She was a truly wonderful woman and I am sorry that you didn't get to know her like I did. I wish I could have shared her with everyone because she was such a blessing to so many.

“ Mrs. Clark always took time to stop and visit with me no matter how busy she was. I will always remember talking with her in the hall and her sweet smile and cheerful stories.

“I don't care how busy she was or tired, she always stopped what she was doing to greet you in the halls of our school... Always a kind word about your day or your family... I will miss that kind smile and greeting... I think it can be said that she has left a legacy to our little community...

“Ms Clark always had a kind word and a smile for me. It was always a joy to see her and hear encouraging words. This world was a more positive place because she was in it. Rest in peace, sweet lady.

“ Sweet Friend- we had many afternoon talks. Once after school she and I sneaked over to Mrs. Laura McDaniel's room to rescue a squirrel that had been trapped in her wall (we thought it was trapped). I pulled back the base board and cut a hole while Ms. Clark held a bucket over the hole. By the grace of God, we got it outside and put the base board back over the hole. No one was more the wise :) I believe Juanita might remember because she had stopped in to visit Ms. Clark that day. The world is sweeter because of this precious lady. I pray we will visit again one day. God bless all who knew her, Melanie Spence

Thank you so much for your kind words. She will be missed by many. She was the most amazing woman I've ever met. It means a lot to my family to know that she was so loved by so many.

Sincerely,
