“ I can not believe my mom has almost been gone for 2 years! It both seems like yesterday and forever! My mom was the most beautiful person I've ever known or will ever know inside and out! I have dreams about her quite often and in my dreams she still that same beautiful person she always was and always will be! I will forever miss her beauty and her beauty was more than superficial! Her beauty was how she treated everybody even a complete stranger! I miss you Mom I love you so very much!

“ It's so hard to understand why she endured the pain and suffering that she did in this life. I do believe that Satan knew she was one that was closet to her savior and he tried his hardest to turn her away from God. She never questioned God even in her darkest hour. We know where she is and that she is no longer in pain. She touched more lives than anyone here will ever know with her kind words, her hugs and her prayers. She was the best mother, grandmother and wife to ever walk this Earth. She was as beautiful on the inside as she was on the outside. What a blessing I received when God chose her to be my mother. She will always be in our hearts and her guidance will continue to impact the choices we make in striving to be more like her and more like our savior. Love you forever and always mamma.

Your baby girl,

Michele

“ Aunt Charlotte was the role model growing up of how to be the best wife, mother, lady, Christian that i've ever been around. She was always taking care of her children and sewing and making something beautiful for them. She loved her children & grandchildren I guess more than anything beside's her husband whom she worshipped and adored. She always said when I leave this life I want to be the best wife and mother that could have possibly been that way I will always be irreplaceable and she just laughed. Well She did that. You couldn't stop the love she had for them and the beautiful smile that was always on her face even when in the deepest pain. She always greeted you with a smile and hug. I will miss her amazing love but she left behind the most beautiful legacy in her children and grand children. I am so proud to have had her love and hugs in my life. She has always been and always will be my Hero....Aunt Charlotte heaven just gained one of the most beautiful angels ever to grace this earth. Well done! I will miss your sweet face!
