“My Uncle Cliff had a smile that would light up a room. He was a kind, caring person. Although he lived away from us, we always looked forward to his visits. Like my father, his brother, Uncle Cliff was a quiet, soft-spoken man. My best memory was being at his home last year to help celebrate his birthday with all his family around. The love that was shown to him that day was amazing! He was truly an inspiration to me because I never heard him complain once. I know he was in pain from his injuries, but you would never know that. I will miss him so much, but I am at peace knowing that he is in Heaven with his mother, brothers, and sisters. I will rejoice when someday we will all be reunited. I pray for healing for Mary, Alice, Grace, Tyler, and Kirk. I know he has left a hole in their hearts.
