

David Wayne Summit

November 14, 1956 - August 22, 2026

David Wayne Summit, 69, of Walnut Ridge, Arkansas, passed away August 22, 2026, at the Flo & Phil Jones Hospice House at St. Bernard's in Jonesboro, Arkansas, following a short but aggressive illness.

David, known to those who loved him as Dave, was born November 14, 1956, in Walnut Ridge, Arkansas, to Iris (Phillips) Summit and Ben Crum of Rockford, Illinois.

Dave will be remembered for his giving heart, outgoing personality, and willingness to help others. He had a deep love for his family and enjoyed traveling and watching movies. He was a knowledgeable man with a curious mind, and those who knew him could always count on him for a helping hand.

He is survived by his sister, Judy Taylor of Walnut Ridge; his niece, Christy Taylor-Henault and family of Conway, Arkansas; his nephew, Brad Taylor and family of Temecula, California; his brothers, Chuck (Melissa) Summit and Gary Summit, of the Tampa Bay area, Florida; as well as extended family members and several close friends.

Dave was preceded in death by his parents, Iris (Phillips) Summit of Walnut Ridge and Ben Crum of Rockford, Illinois.

During the final chapter of Dave's life, he was cared for with compassion at the Flo & Phil Jones Hospice House at St. Bernard's in Jonesboro. His family is deeply grateful to the nurses, physicians, hospice staff, and others who cared for him, helped keep him comfortable, and treated him with kindness and dignity.

Graveside Service will be Wednesday, August 26, 2026, in the Lawrence Memorial Park with Bro. Glen Smith officiating.
