

Elizabeth Kathleen "Kathy" Davis

August 19, 1944 - September 7, 2013

Elizabeth Kathleen "Kathy" (Holder) Davis, 69 of Marion, passed away Saturday, September 7, 2013 in Memphis, TN.

Born August 19, 1944; Walnut Ridge, daughter of the late Oliven Jerrell and Perry Walsie McElyea Holder.

Kathy married Franklin Neil Davis on August 14, 1964 at Walnut Ridge, AR. Shortly thereafter they moved to Memphis, TN, then bought their first home in West Memphis, AR. Years later they bought their retirement home in Marion, AR. They celebrated 49 years of marriage together this past August.

Kathy was a homemaker who sold Avon, worked for the West Memphis School District as a crossing guard and a cafeteria worker. In her later years she babysat in the home. She was a member of the Cypress Creek Church of the Nazarene in Marion, AR. She had attended Hoxie school until the tenth grade. Years later she would finish her GED. She enjoyed singing soprano in the church choir and specials. In fact, her early teenage years she sang gospel songs on the radio for live recordings and was set to go on live TV, but being self-conscious about her weight, she declined a professional singing career.

She is survived by her husband, Frank of the home; two son's, Michael & wife Leona of Shallowater, TX, and Christopher of Marion; one daughter, Karen of Marion; three grandchildren, Krista of Marion, Cynthia, and Nathanael of Shallowater, TX; and many other relatives and friends.

A memorial service will be held Saturday, September 14, 2013 at 2 pm at the Cypress Creek Church of the Nazarene, 953 Cypress Ave, Marion, AR 72364.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations to be sent to the Methodist
Hospice Residence of Memphis, TN or to the Cypress Creek Church of the Nazarene in her honor.

So sorry to hear of the passing of Kathleen. Went to school with her at Hoxie. She was a very sweet girl and I can tell by that smile in her picture that she continued to be a very sweet lady. Joyce Fowler Drew.
