“ My sympathy to Larry, Sheila, Regina, Greg, and Carrie, and the rest of the family. Gary was twenty years older than me, and I guess it may have been twenty-five years since I last saw him. My family spent time with his when I was in high school. I thought he had such a fun sense of humor. I was always laughing about something he said and the dry way he said it. I still remember how funny I thought it was when he asked for "horse doovers" instead of calling them Cheetos! Took me far too long to realize he was deliberately slaughtering hor'doerves. (Or however that fancy word is spelled). Every time I hear someone else poking fun at the word with a witty mispronunciation, I always think of Gary.

“ He was a very sweet man & always had a smile for me when I walked into his room. He would say "there's my girl Sherry Faye" you make my day. You will be missed Mr Gary!! I love you.
