“My Memories of My Dad is all I have, as everyone that knew him he was the Best Mechanic around he could work on something that had been setting there rusty for years and my Brother Ron and my Dad had it running, it was an old dozer or Trencher. Well my Dad was changing spark plugs on a vehicle and I was out there handing him the tools he needed, he hollers at me and said ; Hey Sis I need you to check this one and see if it is working or not, and of course I do and I got the crap knocked out of me !!!! And he just laughed.... I told him I would get him back .. I never did but I didn't go for that ole trick again.
I wish you was here Dad to pull that one over on me again.
I Love You.
Your Daughter

“ One of my memories was seeing dad, you, Jerry together, seem like when you seen one you would see the other two. Sometimes Billy Joe, The Gentry Boys.....One day I passed your house and seen you and dad setting on side of the cellar talking, still hanging out, dad was going thru a tuff time and he wanted to visit you. The last memory I have was the day my Grandson was born, was the day you left. I went to post on FB about Baby Kyson and seen where Aunt Sue had left me a message about you. I left and went to be with family and made my way to you, I whisper to you, your going to be ok, I love you, I wish I had went to see you earlier. I looked at you and I felt at peace.... You had done what you needed to do while here on earth, you had received Jesus into your life. That by it self is a good memory for us all. It is always hard to let our love ones go but we still have all the memories of our Uncle Gene, Love you and your family “ One memory I will never forget is when we used to live in the big white house behind Aunt Margie and we had a Horse and had a electric fence put up and my Dad had me to grab the fence to see if it worked . I was probably around 9 years old.. Well I grabbed it alright and I couldn't let go!!!! It was turned up so high.. He just laughed. I was so mad..lol I Love You Dad Miss You So Much..
