“ Family,

So sorry to hear this. Our prayers are with you during this time of sorrow. May God grant you comfort in your memories of Blondie. She was a precious lady. I wish I could share this time with you but distance keeps us apart. But, one day all that have trusted Jesus Christ as their personal Saviour will reunite at that glad reunion day.

“ My Aunt Blondie was the most beautiful person. She always was taking care of others and their needs. She was always the strong one when there was sickness in the family. She loved life and her family. A few weeks ago I got to take her outside and sit under the tree and sit in the sunshine, I watched her hair blow as a gentle breeze brushed the trees as she looked up I knew she was thinking about home. I enjoyed that special moment as I sat held her hand and prayed with her she sit so still and seem so at peace that day. She's forever at home now. Love you aunt Blondie see you in heaven.
