“ Harry was a man of means by no means a man you would walk away from. He was a walking encyclopedia as i never knew a conversation he could not participate in. Never did he boast but always made you feel like he was FAMILY, he did his part in all our reunions and in family episodes and was a Jones that was way out front in life. Family rest assured he will not be forgotten. Mary & Johnny Hodges

I met Harry in 2015 at a dance and fell in love with him. We had some good times and some rough times. He was a quiet man but would have moments that would really make you laugh. He usually kept his feelings to himself but after you got to know him you realized how much he loved his family. He knew everyone and I never heard anyone say an unkind word about him. I am proud to have known him and his family and I truly miss him.
