“ Jimmy was my little brother. We had the same mother, his dad was my stepdad. He was 5 years younger than me. I moved away when momma died and he stayed with our grandma Dovie Tolson. My heart is truly truly broken. This is January 4, 2021 and I am just finding out. OH MY GOD, I feel so devastated.

“ Rest in Peace my old friend. We practically grew up together. If I wasn't at his house on the weekend then I was at his starting around 3rd grade. Everything from GI Joes to Fishing, Hunting, Trapping and Fast cars. We both went in the Navy but both settled down and really never saw each other but once after then but the memories have always stayed. Prayers for his family

“ Jim is my newly found brother , we shared the same dad. I got to meet him for the first time in August and only got to spend 2days with him , my heart is broken, I so wanted to build a relationship with him and his children , and grandchildren.oh how he loved them!!! They were his world , this is the one thing I will always know, Rest In Peace Jimmy until we meet again. I love you 💜💜💜
