“*Lou,
The funeral service was beautiful and was a wonderful tribute to Leroy's life of service to the Lord and his joy in serving Him! We have been praying for God's perfect peace and comfort for you in the coming days. I know your little dog is keeping you company and is a joy for you during this time. It will be fun to watch her play with our dogs this summer when you come to visit. We can drive up and bring you to Memphis and later on, take you home. It would be fun to have some of the Randall FWB church people over while you're here too. We will try to call in a few days and visit over the phone. Take care---we love you and will continue praying for you! 1-30-14*

“Lue: Delois and I are so sorry we could not have come to Arkansas for the home going of Leroy. We have many memories over the Free Will Baptist and Scripture Press times. Only time and memories we will remember as our days draw near. Our weather is sub zero and snow impossible for us to travel at this time. Blessings and our prayers will continue on your behalf. Alton and Delois Loveless, Columbus, Ohio.

“ Although I know Leroy is now singing praises in Heaven even as our hearts are heavy here but full of good memories of days gone by.
