“ It was an honor being friends and colleagues with Jane. We shared some special bonding time during our playground duties together at Hoxie Elementary. Jane helped me get through one of the roughest spots I have encountered in my life. God rest her soul. I know she is smiling...can't remember a time she didn't smile, no matter what! She had a precious peaceful presence! I pray that God will enfold you, Jane's family, in his loving comfort.

“ Jane tried so hard to teach me how to cast out nines to check division. I never had the patience she had. Jane has left such a legacy of children and grand children.

God Bless all of you

“ Dear Janet and Family-
I have many great memories of Jane, most especially the 100's Club! Always smiling, always pushing people to be their best, always a great daughter to your Maw Maw. I went to see your Maw Maw last night after I heard. God lead me to go, and I was glad that I did.
