Kenny Joe McGowan was man of many and varied interests. He was a man that could make a dime into a dollar at the drop of a hat. He had many jobs throughout his life but they all related to people in some form or another. He was in retail, a restaurateur, and held every position in a car dealership relating to sales. From general manager to sales selling was what Kenny loved.

By far his most loved job, hobby or passion was swapping and trading horses. His biggest thrills came from showing Tennessee Walking Horses and he had the best. He had a most competitive personality as shown by his many blue ribbons and championships in the show ring. Kenny was a Christian and in his youth attended Hermann Baptist Church.

Kenny's love of horses led to him being an important part of many horse related organizations. In the past Kenny had sat on the board of NAWA Horse Show Association and was the president for many years of The Easy Riders Gaited Club at Boydsville. At his death he was a sitting board member of the Hillbilly Horse Show Association. One of his grandest honors was being a board member for the Tennessee Walking Horse Breeders and Exhibitors Association of which he was still a sitting member.

His love for family and friends was immense. Kenny had a multitude of life long and current friends which was probably due in part to that radiant smile and his quick, razor sharp wit. Friends, horses and jobs aside, Kenny's true love was his family. He felt his children were his greatest accomplishment and the love for his grandchildren was all encompassing. He cherished and loved his wife above all others except the Lord.

Kenny's presence, love and friendship will be missed by many but we will see him again one day.

The family invites you to feel free to be casual or wear boots and jeans.

“ To the family,

I was sorry to hear this news. Kenny Joe was a year younger than me and went to school with me at Bono and then Westside. He always was very witty and I know he will be missed by all. I have not seen him in a number of years, but it does not diminish the sad news I received today.

At this time, our thoughts and prayers are with the family.
