“ I have many memories from our childhood, growing up together. It is sad that we had to grow up and grow apart. I am so thankful for the words spoken by the pastor about Uncle Lavelle's acceptance of the Lord as his savior, and his only regret was that he didnt do it sooner. That gave me such peace. The passing of a loved one is so much easier, when you know that you will be with them again someday. The only time we should be sorrowful is when they have not accepted the Lord, and we know where they will spend eternity. Eternity in Heaven is reason to rejoice. My prayers for you all are for comfort from the Almighty Comforter as you learn to live life here on Earth without him. I know it will be difficult. Much Love To You All!

“Darlene, Lisa, Angie and Jamie, I am so sorry about the loss of uncle Lavelle. I have so many fond memories of growing up around all of you. I pray that God gives you strength through your time of grief. He no longer is suffering. I love you all and am here if you need me. I found this beautiful poem and wanted to share it with you.

Heaven

I took a trip to heaven, But only in my mind. I wanted to know what it's like to leave all you behind. So I closed my eyes, and started to see, just how beautiful heaven can be. I could see the pearly gates of white and behind them was the most radiant light. I saw an angel as she was passing by. So incredibly beautiful that a tear fell from my eye. Everyone looked perfect with the angels they did sing. There are no earthly words to describe the beauty of their wings. As I sat on a bench in the most incredible garden, I asked God for all my sins to be pardoned. I took one last look at all the beauty around, and when I opened my eyes, it was peace that I found.
