“Lucy and I were both members of Delta Kappa Gamma. Lucy was a wonderful friend and we always enjoyed seeing each other and laughing with each other at our meetings! She did some of her observations in my classroom when I taught at St. Paul's while she was earning her teaching degree. Lucy and I had some great times together and I will truly miss her. She loved her family very much and I remember her always talking about her son. I am sorry that I was unable to attend her services, but I did not find out about then until today. I will keep her family in my prayers! May God comfort her family. Rhonda McCallister

“Lucy colored outside the lines. She was warm, bold, intelligent, and courageous. She was passionate about her special needs students and tried to create a safe environment for her little ones to grow and prosper. She had an insatiable appetite for knowledge, particularly the Bible. She read the Bible all the time and strived to be a better person.

Lucy's love for her entire family was evidenced in too many ways to name. She was so proud of her “little grands”, and managed to regularly create time to play with them, to teach them, and to love them unconditionally. I will miss our philosophical discussions.

There are no words to express how much I will miss her. My thoughts and prayers are with her family, the teachers and staff of Walnut Ridge Elementary, and the Special Education Department of Lawrence County School District. Lucy will forevermore be in my heart; this, she will always be with me.

“ I want to share with Lucy's family something that she said to me during my loss of a love one. It was my first birthday since my mother had passed, but what made it so hard was my mother and I's birthday is one day apart. While this might not give any comfort now, maybe one day it will.

“ Lucy touched the lives of many, many people over the years. She was an integral part of Walnut Ridge school and the idea of WRES without Lucy is an alien thought. Lucy, you will be missed by the students, teachers, and staff but you will not be forgotten ❤️

“ My heart is broken. We laugh we cry. We shopped we ate. We raised our boys. We loved our students. We told stories and told each other we loved one another. My fondest memories our the boat rides. One thing is for sure we laughed so hard that day. I remember all the good Times. We loved our boys didn't we. Well it's time for me to say goodbye to my crazy funny sassy beautiful friend. My outspoken giggle lady. You are in my heart forever. Along with John Corey and Corey's babies. I miss you baby girl.

“ Oh my sweet, sweet friend. Today has been tough for so many of us but not for you. For that I am thankful. Guess we won't share our birthdays together next week, 1st mine and then yours. I think back and bust a gut laughing at some of the things you have done. ALWAYS telling it how it is. How many times did I tell you to tone it down or you were gonna get fired? How many times did I have to tell you to check your sugar, you were getting out of control. How many times did you tell me you loved me? How many lives did you touch and make just a little bit better? I'll not say goodbye but rather see ya later. Even as I am writing this I feel your arm hugging me around my shoulder, your way of always saying it will be alright.
