“ Toot was my fiance. He asked me to marry him on Valentine's Day 2018 in our first apartment together. Toot held me and comforted me so much when I struggled, and I tried to be there for him when he was down. We were a team. I was more than a friend, much more. We lived together for 3 short years before his all to early calling. He loved WWE, and he even got me to watch it with him. We'd reserve Monday nights to watch it together. He called himself Nature Boy Toot Dickey. I love him with all that was in me, romantically, as my best friend and as a partner who I shared everything with in life. I hope he has peace now from life's struggles and is making his loved ones in heaven smile. His smile was contagious. I love you Toot, and you will always be a part of my soul. I love you so. - Kristina Farrow
