“Myra was so nice to me when I had my flower shop. Her grandson, Trey, was good friends with my son as we were neighbors. She, like the rest of her family are such friendly people. My thoughts and prayers are with the family as time goes on without her.

“A special friend for 61 years. She loved her family. We first met when we bought an identical house that shared a drive with her house in Helena, AR.
Great memories.
