“ My great aunt Edith was the most amazing woman. I remember when I was sixteen I traveled from st.louis to sedgwick and met her for the first time. Crystal and Holly baked me a cake from scratch while we visited. The next morning aunt Edith took me all around showing me all the places my momma told me stories about. I loved her we all loved her very much. I'm sorry I didn't attend the funeral. I lost contact with everyone back in 2009 when my mother Nancy passed. Please forgive me. My new number is 573 315 9924.

“ I didn't know Mrs. Rodgers but had the opportunity to share visits with the family on her last days here..

I am a friend of Crystal's and want to send my condolences to everyone..always remember she is with dad and grandpa looking down with him on all of you..

You will always have the memories of her in your mind and thoughts..hold your head high and continue on making her proud..

GO REST HIGH ON THAT MOUNTAIN Mrs. Rogers..
