

Nancy Ann Schuler

March 13, 1957 - October 8, 2017

Nancy Ann Schuler of Hoxie, AR, passed away suddenly on Sunday, October 8, 2017, from a cerebral aneurysm; Nancy was 60 years old. Nancy was born at Ft. Carson in Colorado Springs, Colorado, to Sgt. Wallace C. and Hedwig M. Schuler, and grew up in Lansing, IL and San Diego, CA. Among her many occupations, Nancy worked as a certified nursing assistant at St. Bernard's Hospital in Jonesboro, AR.

She is survived by her son, Gregory Kirby, granddaughter, Destiny Kirby, and two great granddaughters; mother, Hedwig M. Schuler; sister, Jeanette Schuler; nephews David Waller and James Waller; and by her many loving friends, including Brenda Manning and family of Hoxie, AR.

Nancy, we will always carry your memory in our hearts. We miss your quirky sense of humor and can still hear your infectious laugh. Rest in loving peace.

No Services are set at this time.

Tribute Wall

AE

“ Nancy trained me when I started at St. Bs many years ago. She was always laughing, and had everyone else laughing as well. Much love to her family. Sorry for your loss.

Angie Eakes - November 10, 2017 at 12:03 PM

JS

Thank you for your kind words of condolence Angie. My sister was a character that's for sure. We all miss her very much.

jeanette schuler - November 15, 2017 at 10:34 PM