

Pamela Jean Stephens

September 25, 1959 - August 20, 2024

Pamela Jean Stephens, 64 of Walnut Ridge, died August 20, 2024, surrounded by her family and loved ones in the Lawrence Memorial Hospital in Walnut Ridge.

Born September 25, 1959, in Fort Sill, OK; daughter of the late Oliver and Bonnie Stratton Stephens. Pamela was a homemaker, and a imaginative and creative writer. She enjoyed cooking, music, poetry, and spending time with her children and grandchildren. She was most proud of one of her stories being published in the Fayetteville Newspaper front page. She was a member of the Main Street Church of Christ in Walnut Ridge.

She is preceded by her parents, and a grandson, Lucky Fallis.

Survivors include her three children, Andrea (Eric) Fallis Spradling, Orrin Daniel Fallis, and William Clay Lester; three grandchildren, Callie Nichole Green, Kaidan and Arrow Spradling; four siblings, Karen (Alan) Atchley, Nicki (Mark Pelletiere) Black, Oliver "Chuck" Stephens, and Stephanie (Tony Anglin) Rose; special friends, Patrice Junkersfeld, and Shelia Howard; and many other relatives and friends.

Memorial service will be Saturday, August 31, 2024, at 2 P.M. in the New Beginnings Family Worship in Hoxie. Interment of her cremains will follow in the Lawrence Memorial Park in Walnut Ridge.
