“ Well Brother Parker, last time going from Tennessee to my place in Luther OK. Around 2016 I stopped in an visited with you. We talked about my mom n dad, you an family. But most of all I really enjoyed talking about the Bible an God with you. In December 1977, you an sister Peggy, came to my wedding in Jonesbord still have letter, card an gift you give us. Around 1995 we lived in Tennessee an you n Peggy was going to Nashville an you all stopped in on Sunday an went to church with us. I know you are missed but you are in heaven visiting all the other people Gone on. Say hi to Dad n mom.. Until then Brother Parker .

“ I worked beside Pete for many years at General Electric. He was the most kind and generous man that I have ever known. Pete talked of his loving wife that he adored and that he missed so much. I am filled with joy knowing that our Lord has joined them together again. I send my sympathy to all of the family
