“Rose was one of the warmest and most generous people I have ever known — and so funny and smart. She was shy when she came to school in Walnut Ridge with the other Alicia kids, but she had a twinkle in her eye and never lost it. She will be missed.

“Rose was my Avon representative. She would always make sure that I had my Avon as promised. Rose was a sweet lady & I enjoyed talking with her. I had just seen Rose within the last month & was ready to place another order with her. May you rest eternally & keep Heaven smelling good...

“Rose and I became friends in the 7th grade and remained the best of friends to this day. Always had a smile whenever you saw her. I'm sure going to miss her. Life won't be the same. One thing is for sure, she's singing in a Heavenly choir now. I can almost hear her.
