“ *Roy Helms is the father of my best friend that I truly love and I adored him dearly. Roy is a soldier for the Lord Jesus and he lived it out daily. I know this because when I would just pop in to say Hi or be called to his home to fix something that he no longer good do. And there it was the instruction book to life with its worn pages. You could tell he had been reading and spending time with the Lord. See he was Gods word in living color right before my eyes all the years. I'm sad for friend, his children and family. But sure that he is truly home with the ones he LOVES.
Thank you Lord for allowing me to be apart seeing you in him.
