“ Sarah, I just found out today about your passing, and I'm still in shock about these news. One thing immediately popped into my mind, and that was when we went to Batesville with the nursing class for the competition, and you helped me after the accident several of us had there. You were so caring and concerned. I have never forgotten this kindness.

I wish to extend my sincerest condolences to the family. Sarah will never be forgotten by those she met.

God bless you, Sarah.

“ Many we love have passed away to soon...without reason.

May your memories bring you comfort during this difficult time. It will be the little things that you will remember the quiet moments, the smiles, the laughter. And although it may seem hard right now, it will be the memories of these little things that help to push away the pain.

I have many wonder memories of Sarah as a child. Her smile and fun loving ways are in my mind and heart forever.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. May you take comfort in the knowledge that your beloved daughter is in a place of utter peace and comfort, connected to you always.

May god bless you and your family.

“ For my darling daughter "You steal my heart away....By Van Morrison"

*I can hear the sound of violins
I can hear the piper play
And every time the song begins
You just steal my heart away*

*The journey's longer than
I thought my love
There's lots of things
Get in the way
But every time I think of you
You just steal my heart away*

*Just like a morning
In May like this
See the heather on the hill
There's a place way up
The mountainside
Where the world
Keeps standing still*

*Just like the sunshine after rain
I'll come
To be with you will save the day
'Cos I know
When I'm with you again
You just steal my heart away*

*Just like a morning
In May like this
We see the heather on the hill
There's a place up on
The mountainside
Where the world is*

Standing still

*Just like the sunshine after rain I'll come
To be with you will save the day 'cos I know
When I'm with you again
You just steal my heart away*

*'Cos I know
When I m with you again
You just steal my heart away*

*'Cos I know
When I'm with you again
You just steal my heart away*

*'Cos I know
When I'm with you again*

My heart yearns for you Sarah, I can feel your presence and I know what you want me to do and I will. I shall forgive and I will let go of this pain and hurt I have carried so long...you were a strong, beautiful, intelligent young lady... You were a perfect angel in my eyes...and now you have your wings where you can truly soar...do not worry about me anymore my sweet daughter, for I am strong and I will carry on. You were misunderstood by many but you were an inspiraton to many as well...god has taken your pain away and called you back home to be with him...I will be with you soon my love and now no one can ever hurt you again. There won't be a day that goes by that I will not think of you and cherish each memory and my love for you shall never fade....I love you and your mother and Tristan loves you.

“ NATIVE AMERICAN PRAYER

I give you this one thought to keep --

*I am with you still – I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,*

*I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,*

I am the gentle autumn rain.

When you awaken in the morning's hush,

I am the swift, uplifting rush of quiet birds in circled flight.

I am the soft stars that shine at night.

Do not think of me as gone –

I am with you still – in each new dawn.

“ Sarah, you always made the evenings interesting. You were always so full of life and now it seems unreal that you are gone. You were an amazing, caring nurse that always seemed to get things done. You may be out of our reach, but you will never be out of our minds.

“ Sarah,
We didn't meet yet but I know you. I understand you and share so many things with you. To Sarah's family, may her brightness in her smile overcome the darkness. May you hold those memories in your heart that will forever comfort you until we all meet again. Sarah touched many hearts and many lives. Her journey is far from over, she has all eternity to smile down on each of us. I am so sorry for your loss. Peace and blessings to each of you.

“ I am so sorry and was very upset to here of Sarah's passing. Any time we loose a family member and a loved one it is hard, even more so when it happens so unexpectedly.I did not Know Sarah except meeting her briefly when she was a little girl.I know in my heart that knowing her would have been a blessing.We have to have faith and always remember god is in control and that somehow as deeply as these losses hurt us it is all a part of his divine plan.She will be able to walk with the lord now hand in hand and she will also be comforted by the others that we have lost. I am so greatly sorry for the grief that all of you must feel at this time, I know that she will be greatly missed and in our hearts forever.

“ I know how hard an unexpected loss is. Please accept my heartfelt sympathy at this tragic time. It is difficult to understand tragedies like this, but we can call on our faith to help us through. I remember Eddie and I came to see Sarah when you brought her home after she was born. Now, she is in God's home. Greg, I am so happy you were able to reconnect with Sarah and with your granddaughter, Tristan. The pain does ease with time but the memory of her will remain so very much alive, until you meet again.

“ My darling daughter I am so heartbroken that you left me so soon... You brought so much joy and happiness into my life. I am so very proud of you. I love you more than words can ever express, you are an inspiration to myself and to all who knew you. I thank God for blessing me with such a lovely and brilliant young lady.

My heart is full of love for you but my sadness is tearing me apart...I only wish I could do something to change what has happened but that is not possible. God has a plan for each of us and we are all on our own journey. Your journey here has come to an end..You are in heaven now and God will fulfill his promise of everlasting life for you. I will join you again someday and when that day comes I will be ready and I am preparing for that wonderful day that I can hold you in my arms again.

I am so glad we got to see each other before you were called to heaven, and I will be there for our little Angel you blessed us with, Tristan for as long as I live. She is a beautiful smart little girl and you can be proud of her, she will grow up to be just like her mommy and you shall see her again in heaven again someday too.

Please know that there is not a day that has passed since you were born that I have not thought of you and there will never be a day that I do not think of you and send my love up to heaven for you...until we meet again my perfect angel, I will always love and cherish you...your Dad....xoxo

“ Dear Sarah,

You were a wonderful mother to Tristan and she and Michael loved you so much. I remember meeting you the first time, and we were so happy that Michael had found someone to love. Then, you gave us Tristan... our sweet, beautiful niece. We had some fun times when you came down to Memphis to visit us. We were the same age, with daughters the same age... James and I will be there to help Michael along the way now. I want Tristan to grow up and remember her mama, smiling and happy. I want her and Addyson to remain close friends as they grow up, being the only Bell girls ha ha. It is comforting knowing that you are with Jesus and we will all meet again someday. Just know that your baby girl will not do without. That our family will love her, and remind her of you often. A mama cannot be replaced. I am so sorrowed by your sudden departure from this earth. Mother's day will not be the same. Watch over us from heaven, and know we think of you often.

Love,

James, Sheena & Addyson Bell
