“*Esther,
I'm at a loss for words. When I talked to you a few weeks ago I never dreamed i would be speaking these words to you today. You are in my prayers and will remain so. All the things we've seen working in the court system we pray we never see within our own families. My condolences to Shannon's children and grandchildren.*

To the family and friends of Shannon: my heartfelt sympathy for your loss. I don't know if Shannon's Aunt Bess is still living or not but she and I were friends when I worked at Skilcare Nursing Home in Jonesboro and after. When Shannon and Nancy went to school together is when I learned Bess was her aunt. God bless all of you in this time of loss.

“ Shannon, sweet Shannon...to your family:

Shannon, you cared so wonderfully for my mother over 6 years ago. You were very professional, calming (which was a gift to so many dementia patients), helpful to the families who were at a loss while caring for our loved ones. I am so sorry to hear of your, death and the loss of your family....and please know I will always appreciate you! Prayers for your family...may God bless them in their sorrow.

“ Esther, Emily, Drake and Family,

Words can not express how truly sorry I am for the tragic and unfortunate loss of Shannon. She and I spent many hours together while going through nursing school. We shared a lot of laughter as she was always coming up with something comical to say! I have many great memories of our time together. I also had the pleasure of working with her for a short time at Lawrence Hall after graduating. She was truly an awesome nurse! Her residents loved her and she did them as well.

I hadn't seen or spoken to Shannon in years. We lost touch shortly after working together as people often do. I can remember how much she loved you Emily and Drake. (at that time she hadn't had grand babies) and she loved you Esther, as a mother and a best friend! Most of our conversations, other than nursing, was about our families.

My heart truly aches for what you all are going through right now. I will continue prayers to our loving Father for strength for you all.

“ Drake and Emily I'm sorry for y'all's loss. I was in the LPN program with your mom and was at y'all's house several times. Y'all's mom was such a sweet kind person. I hate that we lost touch over the years and I even hate that this happened to her more then anything. May God lift y'all up and give y'all peace and comfort during this horrible time. Vivian

Esther and family, I have no words that are adequate to tell you how sorry I am. I will always remember the first time I met Shannon as a little girl, to a teenager who was always smiling and always helped with her little brothers, to her becoming a mother, then a nurse and a beautiful Mimi. She had a beautiful spirit and made an impact on everyone she met.

I pray that you will find comfort in the love of family and friends and know that Shannon will always be loved and will never be forgotten.

Love and prayers.
