“ Had it not been for being a part of the Ragsdell family{ my brother married Freda}, I don't think Gary and I would have meet. I was invited to one of Harry & Sharon's 'infamous' New Year's Eve parties...we danced once, i wasn't to thrilled with Gary...but 6 months later, we were married, i thank the good Lord everyday, for my 'other' family and Sharon and Harry will always be a big part of it..I loved her as a sister.. although i did not visit her during her illness, I was always affraid I'd show up on a 'bad' day..and i didn't want to remember her any other way than that smile, that laugh, and that matter-of-fact way of her's...Steph, thx for posting this..and to Steph, Jay, Cheyan, Celea and Harry , the world is less bright without her..God bless and I continue to pray for you all.

“Sharoney will be so very missed. she has always been a very strong person when it has come to family. Very hard work and persons that she has come to trust and be a true friend with her over the years has always been easy for her. There will never be a Sharon that has truly been a great role as being a Ragsdell, Sisco. and Jones.
