“ To my lifetime best friend and next door neighbor at Clover Bend during our teen years. Our adult life separated us but you were never forgotten. We have been there and done that. I am so happy that we got to see each other the past few years at the Clover Bend Reunion. RIP my friend.

“ To the Allen Family, of which I feel like I have been apart of all my life, please accept my deepest sympathy for your loss. Tommie is no longer suffering, but you still have your loss, which hurts, I know. I will be praying for all of you!!! God bless all of you!
