“ A little message to share that I am thinking about Uncle Bill ~ life goes by so fast, one minute our hand is being held by our parent ~ and the next, that once dependent, little child now holds that same hand ~ the dependence reversed ~ still holding on for dear life.

I pray his loved ones are adjusting to his passing with fond memories and giggles and are feeling peace in that Uncle Bill lived such a full life. The stories I hear from the elders of my family inform me Uncle Bill didn't miss too many moments to explore, indulge his imagination and live a very interesting, fun-filled life.

I will try new adventures here and there in honor of my Uncle Bill and remember him with a happy heart as I do so. I wish my husband had a chance to share life with you and a few giggles, too.

With Love and Prayers to all his loved ones ~ hoping Uncle Bill isn't getting into too much trouble when he is supposed to be resting in peace :o)

*In tender love

“ Bill still looks the same as we remember him. We had a lot of laughs with your Mom and Dad. I already told you about the dog your Dad and Uncle John purchased. Before you kids were born, your Mom and Dad and Uncle John and I decided to go down state and tour the Illinois State Pen . Don't know why we would want to do that but when we got there we chickened out. It was your Dad's idea. Your Dad had a lot of southern expressions. His favorite was "I was as nervous as a cat in a room full of rockers". We are so sorry for your loss. Your Mom and Dad will forever be in our prayers. Love Uncle John and Aunt Joyce

“ Deepest Condolences to Uncle Bill's Family ~

For my precious cousins and their families; I am very sorry your hearts have to bare his loss. I can't imagine how difficult this must be since your Mom passed away so recently, as well. My heart goes out to you and your loved ones with deep sympathy. I imagine it is especially difficult for a Son to loose his Father.

Uncle Bill's siblings, special friend and cronies will no doubt, feel the absence of his vivacious, sporting, and compassionate spirit. I hope your memories will be shared with smiles and giggles as you adjust to a world with one less sparkling star that brightened your lives. I pray his love for you will carry you through this difficult journey of loss.

My Uncle Bill filled his lonely, widowed niece with hours of joy during the last season of his life. We marveled at each others gardening success; all the while that funky cadence and tone of his voice filled my heart with tender memories of years gone by. I am grateful for that gift he gave to me.

Here's to you, Uncle Bill! With every bite of sweet potato I take, I will think of you and smile ~ ~ Rest in Peace, dearest Uncle Bill ~

*With Love and Prayers to his Family - I am so very sorry for your loss,
